

KIX EAP Podcast – Episode #3

Speaker biographical note

Dr. Shehzad Jeeva is the Director of the Aga Khan University Examination Board and an Assistant Professor in the university's Faculty of Arts and Sciences, located in Karachi, Pakistan. Dr. Jeeva holds an M.Sc. and B.Sc. from the University of Karachi, along with a PhD in Chemistry from the University of Cambridge. The Aga Khan University Examination Board has sought to modernize the Pakistani educational sector through examinations, curriculum, and other training. Pushing back from the traditional rote memorization, the organization champions hands-on learning and fostering critical thinking. He and his colleagues are also exploring ways to alleviate the detriments to Pakistani education caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. Dr. Jeeva has been working for Aga Khan University since 2014. In addition, he sits on various boards and other governmental advisory bodies, such as the International Association for Educational Assessment, National Curriculum Council, Federal. Ministry of Education, Govt. of Pakistan, and the Inter Board Committee of Chairmen (IBCC), Federal Ministry of Education and Training.